

Call for Summer Camp Counselors – 2019

Position: Summer Camp Counselor

Description: The Wing Luke Museum is looking for friendly and helpful volunteers to be summer camp counselors. Volunteers must commit to volunteering for duration of at least one 5-day program (week 1: July 29-August 2, week 2: August 5-9, and/or week 3: August 12-16). Counselors assist the education specialist and teaching artists with arts and crafts that help students ages 6-12 explore how to express themselves. The camps are day programs with no evening or overnight hours. More information about summer camp can be found at wingluke.org/summercamp.

About the museum: The Wing Luke Museum is the nation's only pan-Asian American museum, located in Seattle's Chinatown-International District neighborhood. The Wing's mission is "to connect everyone to the rich history, dynamic cultures and art of the Asian Pacific Americans through vivid storytelling and inspiring experiences to advance racial and social equity."

Schedule:

- Must commit to volunteering for:
 - July 29-August 2, August 5-9, and/or August 12-16; hours 9:00am-4:30pm with breaks
- Orientation dates to be determined

Tasks:

- Assist education specialist and teaching artists with art activities.
- Leading movement activities and field games.
- Supervise and interact with children ages 6-12 years.
- Identify and respond to camper behavior issues.
- Know, enforce, and follow all safety guidelines associated with the camp program.
- Set up and clean up after sessions.

Qualifications:

- Experience with caring for children (for example, babysitting).
- Strong interest in teaching art, working with children from a wide range of ages, and helping children explore cultures.
- Ability to start and complete projects.
- Strong sense of responsibility.
- Passion for the Wing Luke Museum's mission.
- Must pass a background check.

Works with:

- Education specialist
- Teaching artists
- Other summer camp counselors
- Summer camp students

Benefits:

- Gain experience in teaching art and educational programming
- For duration of volunteer term:
 - Free admission for one
 - 15% off Chinatown Discovery Tour tickets for one
 - 50% off general admission for family and friends
 - 10% off purchases in Marketplace at the Wing

To apply: Email Volunteer Coordinator Heather Chan at hchan@wingluke.org with a resume (or similar summary of experience) and an explanation of interest.
